FINDINGS OF FACT

month, which was in excess of the transitional Medicaid maximum of $2,481<sup>2</sup> and the VHAP maximum of $2,012 for three-person households.

3. At the hearing (held on December 13, 2005) the petitioners stated that their earned income might be subject to fluctuations based on hours of available work. They were advised to immediately reapply for Medicaid and VHAP if their income falls below the above monthly program maximums.

ORDER

The Department's decision should be affirmed.

REASONS

Under the Medicaid and VHAP regulations, all earned income, except a $90 disregard, and all unearned income is included as countable income for eligibility. W.A.M. §§ M350 and 4001.81(b). There is no dispute that as of the date of their review the petitioners had countable income in excess of the maximums for eligibility under the transitional Medicaid and VHAP programs for a three-person family, which are $2,481 and $2,012 a month respectively.
